

Pigment dispersion (Continuous)

- Continuous pigment dispersion is a process where all grades of pigments can be dispersed using the ATREX® mixer.
- The continuous process consists of powder handling, ATREX® mixer, post mixer, storage tank and a ADS-Screen to improve the quality of the dispersed pigments going to the process.
- The picture below is showing a typical continuous clay dispersion system.

adpap

Clay dispersion system (Continuous)

